PROJECTS

- IOT Based Patient fall detection and alerting system for patient safety
  * This project focuses on developing an IoT-based patient fall detection and alerting system using sensors like accelerometers, gyroscopes, and temperature sensors to monitor patient movements and health. The system ensures timely alerts via SMS and other mechanisms to caregivers or healthcare providers, enhancing patient safety and response efficiency.

- Portfolio
  * A personal portfolio website created using HTML and CSS to showcase professional details.
  * The website features a clean layout with responsive design and well-structured content.
  * This project demonstrates basic front-end development skills and UI quality principles.

- Job portal website
  * This project represents a modern job portal website designed using HTML and CSS with a clean and attractive user interface.
  * The design focuses on responsiveness, usability, and a professional layout to enhance user experience.
